COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT & VOLUNTEERISM

For nearly 185 years, Old National has been focused on strengthening the communities we serve through associate volunteerism, corporate sponsorships and Foundation grant awards. This commitment to community serves as the cornerstone of our identity and helps define our mission and vision as a financial institution.

Defining our commitment to community and social responsibility

Old National Chairman & CEO Bob Jones explains how Banking with Heart is at the center of our commitment to community and social responsibility.

In 2016, Old National celebrated our commitment to community engagement and volunteerism with a video that chronicled a decade of putting our values into action.

100 Men Who Cook Enters Year 10, Tops $6 Million!

In early 2018, we celebrated the 10-year anniversary of our 100 Men Who Cook fundraising events by surpassing $6 million raised! In the past decade, we have hosted 56 of these events—where local chefs prepare and serve their favorite dishes—with monies raised supporting the following causes:

- Mentoring
- Community Organizations
- Military
- Health and Wellness
- Social Services
- Youth Education and Development

Meet Our 2017 Volunteer of the Year

Old National associates volunteered more than 77,000 hours in our communities in 2017. Among those leading the charge was Debbie Greenwell, Old National's 2017 Volunteer of the Year. A banking specialist in our Western Kentucky Region, Debbie assisted members of her community as a certified Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) preparer while also donating countless hours to teaching financial literacy and fraud awareness classes to at-risk community members.

Baseball is one of several sports that families can explore as part of the Indianapolis Children's Museum's new indoor-outdoor Sports Legends Experience. Old National is a proud sponsor of the Sports Legends Experience Avenue of Champions.

Children's Museum of Indianapolis Partnership Encourages Family Fitness and Fun

In 2017, Old National expanded its partnership with the Children's Museum of Indianapolis to include the new Children's Health Sports Legends Experience.

- This immersive indoor/outdoor family health, fitness and sports experience officially opened to the public in March 2018.
- Old National is the official sponsor of the Avenue of Champions, which celebrates Hoosier sports legends.

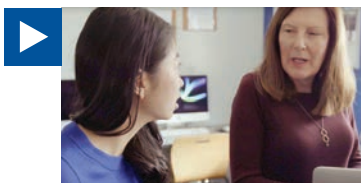

Old National associates Stephanie Baker and Sherry Thorpe visit Dudley Riley, a World War II Veteran who lives at the Western Kentucky Veterans Center in Hanson, Kentucky. Members of Old National's team visited residents of the Center to give each a goody bag and thank them for their service.

Old National Associates 'Pay it Forward'

Old National associates love to make a difference in their communities. And in summer 2017, they did just that!

- Each market within our company received $500 to develop and execute a "Pay it Forward" campaign.
- During National Volunteer Week, we invited members of our communities to visit our Facebook page and tell us how they would "pay it forward." Seven people were chosen at random for a $100 Pay it Forward gift card.

Kris Hammargren, an associate in our Wisconsin Region, helps stuff backpacks for nearly 10,000 schoolchildren. Banking centers in the region collected nearly 19,000 school supplies.

Tools for Schools Continues to Address Critical Needs

For the third year in a row, Old National's Tools For Schools campaign helped make a big difference in our communities:

- Nearly 33,000 supplies were collected, benefitting 840 schools and organizations
- $21,000 in Old National sponsorship grants was awarded to 16 schools
- Nearly 100,000 votes were cast online for over 8,200 schools

Old National welcomes our responsibility to effectively manage our social, cultural and economic resources in partnership with our associates, clients, vendors and communities. We seek to accomplish this by continually examining our organizational practices and our role in cultivating strong, sustainable communities, now and for future generations.

Committed to Community Development

Old National is dedicated to the communities we serve. By meeting with organizations and leaders throughout our footprint, we determine the needs facing our communities and the best way to utilize resources to meet those needs.

- Since 2012, Old National has been a consistent leader in sponsoring Affordable Housing Program grant-awarded projects through the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis.
- In 2017, Old National invested $6.8 million in the Carpenter Court development, a project to repurpose an unused former school building into affordable housing in Evansville.
- Also in 2017, Old National invested $250,000 in the Wisconsin Women's Business Initiative Corp., which helps women, people of color and low-income individuals overcome barriers to traditional financing or resources.

With help from Old National's Home Manager program, a single mother achieves her dream of owning a home.

Financial Empowerment Director Ben Joergens demonstrates how Old National helps strengthen lives through financial education.

Focused on Financial Education

- During 2017, Old National associates taught 1,065 financial-education sessions, reaching 19,910 people.
- Old National received the CRA and Fair Lending Colloquium's Community Impact Award for our 12 Steps to Financial Success program, which empowers at-risk adults to take control of their future and achieve financial success.

Equipment Donations Continue to Foster Sustainability

- In 2017, Old National donated more than 900 units of refurbished electronic equipment with an in-kind value of $107,770 to 38 nonprofits within our footprint.
- Since this equipment-redeployment program began in 2013, Old National has donated roughly 5,500 units of equipment.

Growing Resources

In August 2017, Old National partnered with Ivy Tech Community College in Fort Wayne, Indiana, to help fund a new 3,000-square-foot greenhouse.

- Old National Bank contributed $50,000 to create this self-sustainable structure where students will hone their agricultural skills.
- Old National also donated an additional $11,000 to provide scholarships for Easterseals Arc of Northeast Indiana clients who will participate in agriculture and culinary training programs.

Old National contributed $61,000 over three years to help build a self-sustainable, state-of-the-art greenhouse for Ivy Tech Community College students and Easterseals Arc clients in Fort Wayne, Indiana.
