

What to bring? Follow this easy Home Equity to-do list.

Making home improvements, consolidating debt, buying a new car, paying for college...the equity you've built in your home can be a powerful financial tool with a home equity loan or line from Old National Bank.

Use this handy list to organize your financial information before you apply. Depending on your individual application, more information may be required.

Identification and income information:

- Prior two years addresses and dates of residence
- Social Security number or tax ID
- Driver's license or state issued identification card
- Prior two years employment information including employer contact and dates of employment
- Most recent W2 and pay stub for all income sources
- Two years federal tax returns, including tax applicable schedules if you are self-employed, have rental income, farm income or additional non-W2 reported income
- Alimony, child support or separate maintenance documentation if you wish to have it considered as basis for repaying this obligation
- Additional information may be required such as:
 - Divorce decree (if applicable)
 - Proof of extra income such as rental income, dividends, Social Security, retirement, disability, pension, or welfare (supporting documentation is required)

Property information:

- Balance owed on all liens attached to the property including all mortgages as well as any home equity loans or lines of credit
- Most recent mortgage statement (if applicable)
- Most recent property tax bill
- Most recent hazard insurance declaration page
- Most recent flood insurance declaration page (if applicable)

We'll help you choose the home equity tool that fits your needs – and your budget.

888-423-8373

To find your nearest banking center visit oldnational.com/locations

