

How will you know you are a victim of identity theft?

- Unauthorized charges on your checking account
- Unauthorized transfers or withdrawals on your bank statement
- Bills or credit card statements that don't arrive when expected
- Calls from financial institutions or debt collectors regarding accounts you did not open
- Accounts on your credit report that you did not open
- Receiving cards or billing statements from accounts you did not open
- Contact from companies about merchandise or services you did not buy

OLD NATIONAL[®]

Your bank. For life.[™]