

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What type of direct deposit qualifies for the checking bonus offer?

The direct deposit must be a recurring ACH direct deposit made within the first four months after account opening (“Qualification Period”). All deposits must come electronically from an employer or government agency. Examples of qualifying deposits include:

- Paycheck
- Pension payment
- Social Security
- Other government benefits

Non-qualifying deposits include teller deposits, ATM deposits, mobile check deposits, micro deposits, internal transfers, external transfers, wire transfers, debit card transfers, and peer-to-peer services such as Zelle or Venmo.

How do I set up direct deposit?

To set up direct deposit, provide your employer or benefits provider with your checking account number and the Old National Bank routing number. Our routing number is 086300012.

When will I receive my checking bonus payout?

After you successfully complete the qualifying direct deposit requirements, your cash bonus will be deposited between 121 and 140 days from when you opened your account. Your account must be open and must have a positive account balance at the time of bonus processing.

What happens if my account balance falls below zero during the time of bonus processing?

To receive the bonus, your account must be open and have a balance greater than $0 at the time of bonus processing. Accounts that are closed, restricted, have a zero or negative balance at time of bonus processing will not receive the bonus.

What states are eligible for online account opening?

You can open your Old National checking account online if you live in one of these states: IA, IL, IN, KY, MI, MN, ND, TN, or WI.

Am I eligible for the bonus if I already have an Old National Bank personal checking account?

No. Customers are not eligible if they:

- Have an existing ONB personal checking account
- Are listed as an owner or signer on a joint account
- Closed a personal checking account in the last 36 months
- Received an ONB checking promotional bonus in the last 36 months
- Are ONB employees
